

When all our Earthly Hopes are Exhausted

(Mark 5:21-43)

Stories of Jairus & a nameless lady, who are in desperate situations

- The nature of their problem

- It is a universal problem which also applies to us

2. How Jesus delivers his people from such desperation

- His kindness towards the nameless lady

- His authority over death, and what this ultimately means for them and us.

3. Faith: the only means to enjoy this great salvation

- The nature of a genuine faith: desperate dependency on Jesus & keep believing
